We, the undersigned, hereby agree to submit the dispute described below for arbitration by the BYU Center for Conflict Resolution and to be bound by the decision of the arbitrator(s) rendered in accordance with the Center's rules and regulations and those of the State of Utah. We understand that by signing this agreement, we waive our individual rights to take this action to a civil court of law and that any appeal or enforcement of the arbitration decision shall be based solely upon the grounds specified in Utah Code Annotated Sec. 78-31a and amendments thereto.

Brief Summary of Dispute: _____

Remedies Sought (include amounts claimed, if any):

by Party A: _____

by Party B: _____

We have attached the following:

- a copy of any contracts, bills, receipts, and other documents involved in the dispute.
- the filing fee of $15.00 in the form of a check payable to the BYU CCR.

This is a legal contract. Before signing, you should read it carefully to be sure it gives a fair description of all the issues in the dispute to be arbitrated. You should remember that your signature on this contract means that you have decided to use this private way of settling your dispute instead of going to court. After a decision by an arbitrator, a court of law normally will not hear the facts in an arbitration case but only in rare circumstances where there are grounds for appeal.
